

Minster Bank adds Senior Loan Officer in Move to Grow the Bank's Presence into Montgomery County

Minster, OH – Joel Bopp has been hired as a Senior Commercial Loan Officer for Minster Bank. In making the announcement, Vice President of Commercial Banking, Dan Heitmeyer said that Bopp will lead the bank's efforts to grow its commercial presence in the northern Montgomery County market. Currently the bank is identifying a location for the establishment of a loan production office in the greater Vandalia area.

Bopp brings to Minster Bank nearly 15 years of solid banking experience, most recently serving as a commercial relationship manager for a large regional bank. He holds a degree in finance from Bowling Green University. He currently resides in Troy with his wife DeAnn and their two children, and has been active in a variety of community and church activities.

"Five years ago, Minster Bank opened its full-service branch facility in Troy and the reception has been strong," noted Heitmeyer. "Our strategic intention with the addition of Joel Bopp, who is a proven banking professional, is to build on Minster's reputation as a solid commercial banking choice for small to medium size businesses in the northern Montgomery county area. Joel is well established in the region and we are extremely pleased that he is now a member of the Minster Bank team."

Minster Bank is a subsidiary of Minster Financial Corp, with offices in Minster, New Bremen, St. Marys, Wapakoneta, Sidney, and Troy. To find out more about Minster Bank and its financial solutions, take a virtual tour at MinsterBank.com.
