Heitmeyer named Vice President of Commercial Banking for Minster Bank

Minster, OH – Mark Henschen, President and CEO of Minster Bank has announced the appointment of Dan Heitmeyer to the new post of Vice President of Commercial Banking. Heitmeyer has been with Minster Bank for fourteen years, and was the Bank’s first employee when it opened a branch in Sidney, Ohio in 1993. During his tenure with the Bank, he has served as branch manager and most recently as a senior commercial loan officer.

“Dan is a seasoned professional and has been instrumental in developing many key client relationships for the Bank through the years,” noted Henschen. “His knowledge of the Bank and of the region makes him well suited for this new assignment. I know we will depend on his leadership to help shape the future of Minster Bank.”

Heitmeyer holds a Business Administration degree from the University of Dayton and is a graduate of the Bank Leadership Institute. He has been actively involved in the Sidney community having served as treasurer of the YMCA and as a division leader for the United Way. He is a member of the Sidney Rotary Club and the Knights of Columbus. He and his wife Jill and their two children reside in Sidney.

Filling the post of Commercial Loan Officer in Sidney vacated by Heitmeyer is Jason Wagner. Wagner has been a commercial loan officer for the Bank for the past three and a half years, working out of the Minster office. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Agribusiness and Applied Economics from The Ohio State University.

“Commercial bank clients who have worked with Jason have found him to be responsive and dedicated to meeting their particular requirements,” Henschen said. “During his transition to the Sidney Market, Dan Heitmeyer will work closely with Jason to ensure that client relationships are maintained at the same high standards they have been in the past. Jason is a solid member of the Minster Bank team and well qualified for this new responsibility.”

Jason and his wife Sara and their two children reside in Versailles.
